MOTION re: SCARCITY CONDITIONS IN THE STATE

Debate continued.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I wish to inform the House that 33 Members have already spoken and the 34th Member is to conclude to-day. Still, I have got a very large number of names. As I had mentioned yesterday, this being a very important matter, I propose to give chance to everybody and in return I am asking them to co-operate by being brief and to the point, omitting nothing which is important.

I, now, call upon Sri K. V. Byre Gowda to continue his speech. As the Member is absent, I suppose he has finished his speech.
